Today, I would like to announce an entirely new investment. With the permission of the company Jerry Naumoff has been working with, today I can announce that the Italian company CONDEVO – leader in production and supplying wall-hung boiler components - has informed us it has decided to invest in Stip Technological-Industrial Development Zone, underlined PM Nikola Gruevski at Sunday's rally of VMRO-DPMNE in Stip.

He added it will be an EUR 40 million investment and is set to open at least 250 new jobs in the next five years.

The company is planning to start construction activities in the next three months.
